

On well-posedness of quantum fluid systems

Danica Basarić

Institute of Mathematics, Czech Academy of Sciences. Czech Republic

basaric@math.cas.cz

The main objects of the present talk are the quantum Navier-Stokes and quantum Euler systems; for the first one, in particular, we will consider constant viscosity coefficients. We discuss the existence of a global-in-time dissipative solution for any finite energy initial data, the weak-strong uniqueness principle and the existence of a semiflow selection in the class of dissipative solutions.