

Quantitative derivation of Darcy's law for fluids of Carreau-Yasuda type

Florian Oschmann

Institute of Mathematics, Czech Academy of Sciences, Prague, Czech Republic
`oschmann@math.cas.cz`

We study the homogenization of some special non-Newtonian incompressible fluids in a bounded domain, and show that under the assumption of large obstacles, the limiting system is the linear Darcy law. This is joint work with Yong Lu (Nanjing).